

Pictured at a seminar where their appointment was announced is Patsy Meyler (right) with Michelin's Tom Dennigan (left).

Michelin success for Patsy

LIKE THE Michelin star awards that restaurants value so highly, the grant of Michelin Certified Centre status on Meyler's Tyres of Wexford town has put the outlet on the Michelin map of Europe's top tyre fitters.

One of eleven outlets in Ireland to be granted Michelin Certified Centre status and have their level of service recognised by the world leading tyre maker, Meyler's Tyres was founded in the early-1990s by Paddy Meyler and is operated by his son Patsy. The business has a staff of seven and is located near the Talbot Hotel.

Motorists can access their entry by visiting the dealer section on Michelin's website www.michelin.ie/tyres/dealer-locator